LINK editor R. Paul Dhillon's groundbreaking documentary film called The Bhangra Generation, which looks at the impact of the desi-fusion music and dance on the young South Asian youth in Canada and features Bhangra superstar Jazzy B., will be making its broadcast debut on Rogers national OMNI network on August 29, 2008. The film is produced by Bobby Nagra and written and directed by Dhillon. OMNI has stations across Canada but it is not yet known whether the film will be shown in BC on possibly Channel M, which Rogers is in the process of acquiring. Stay tuned for more details.

No Apologies For "Shady" And "Nefarious" Characters

Everybody Seems To Be Resorting To Frivolous Legal Threats To Demand An Apology – But It's All Due To Memory Loss

THE SORDID CASE OF HARPAL SINGH NAGRA, aliases HARPAL NAGRA, HARJINDER PAL SINGH NAGRA, HARPAL SINGH GHUMAN – there must be more names but we'll stop there.

The LINK is the most trusted Indo-Canadian/South Asian community newspaper because we tell it like it is and strive to tell the truth, although that can be difficult at times given the circumstances and attitudes of some in the community. The latest to send us a threatening legal notice is a man named Nagra but we don't know which one (take a guess from the names listed above).

We really don't even know who actually is sending us the legal notice because even the letter from the lawyers of one, we guess, Harpal Singh Nagra, who was named in our story dated February 23, 2008 as "shady" and "nefarious", lists him as Harjinder Pal Singh Nagra while in the actual body of the letter identifies him as Harpal Singh Nagra. So who's who – if we never named Harjinder Pal Singh Nagra as the shady and nefarious person then why is he mad and wasting our time with this letter. It should instead be the non-existing Harpal Singh Nagra who should be sending us the letter.
